

U.S. EMBASSY OTTAWA, CANADA

SUMMARY POST SECONDARY SCHOOL INFORMATION

Ottawa is very similar to many cities in the United States with regards to post secondary schools. There are a wide variety of schools in the area. University of Ottawa and Carleton University are two major universities, known internationally. Algonquin College is a large and respected community college that offers a variety of courses.

Along with these schools, there are many other specialized schools, such as business colleges, computer and technology colleges, philosophy and theology colleges, health care colleges, fashion and hair design academies, cosmetology, dance, art, aviation, cooking, language centers, technical and trade, massage therapist, modeling, music and a host of others. The area phone book lists hundreds from which to choose.

Carleton University
1125 Colonel By Drive
Ottawa, Ontario K1S 5B6
Phone: 613-520-7400
Website: www.carleton.ca

University of Ottawa
550 Cumberland
Ottawa, Ontario K1N 6N5
Phone: 613-562-5700
Website: www.uottawa.ca

Algonquin College
1385 Woodroffe Avenue
Ottawa, Ontario K2G 1V8
Phone: 613-727-4723
Website: <http://www.algonquincollege.com>

Algonquin offers more than 100 full-time programs, including certificates, diplomas, graduate programs and bachelor degrees in applied studies. Our degree programs provide the best of both worlds, combining the practical application of college education with the theoretical and critical foundations of university learning.

Algonquin students benefit from a low student-to-teacher ratio and small class sizes. Our wireless campus and eLearning options maximize the use of technology as part of both the curriculum and the learning process.

St. Paul's University
223 Main Street
Ottawa, ON
K1S 1C4
Phone: 613-236-1393
Website: http://www.ustpaul.ca/index_e.asp

Small classes, high quality programs and a pleasant environment, Saint Paul University offers an alternative to large Canadian universities. Established in 1848 and federated with the University of Ottawa, Saint Paul University is now comprised of four faculties: Human Sciences, Philosophy, Theology and Canon Law. Our programs in 19 disciplines, range from undergraduate to doctoral level and are taught by internationally renowned professors.

Saint Paul University is also home to several specialized and research centers. These centers conduct world-class research and their presence on campus enriches student life with an ambiance of and quest for higher learning and excellence in their field of expertise.

At the heart of Canada's Capital, Saint Paul University student population benefits from all Ottawa's attraction: large libraries, national museums, research centers, and international events.

La Cité' collegiale
301 Promenade de l'Aviation
Ottawa, ON K1K 4R5
Phone: 613-742-2483
Website: <http://www.3.lacitec.on.ca/>

La Cité collégiale is Canada's largest French-language college outside of Quebec. Each year, about 15,000 full-time and part-time students from across Canada and other countries choose La Cité collégiale for practical training. Known for its commitment to student satisfaction and success, La Cité collégiale offers degree, diploma and certificate programs in areas ranging from media studies to business, health and skilled trades.

http://www.ottawa.ca/residents/immigration/education_en.html#P37_3609